HYBORIAN™ WAR

Kingdom report for Brythunia

Turn: 1

Winter Warseason

NATIONAL HISTORY

Know, my Lord, that thy people are descended of many lands and cultures. Three thousand years past, in the toppling of the ancient and evil empire of Acheron, refugees fled eastward into the largely uninhabited plains which now form the Brythunian Heartland.

For a thousand years the refugees wandered, learning gladly of the freedom and unfettered gallop of horses under a spacious sky, while still retaining much of their old heritage. They kept faith in the god Set and the arboreal religion of Wiccana, worshipping a female goddess in sacred groves. During the next thousand years the survivors of Acheron built up rude and independent kingdoms across the plains and absorbed into their midst another great migration of refugees fleeing to safety from the fall of the first and Eldar Hyperborean empire.

Around them civilization was dawning, the Eldar raising the new kingdom of Hyperborea, and from the Zhemri tribes to the southeast Zamora was founded. The kingdoms of Aquilonia and Nemedra were already towering in the west. During all those years and in the thousand more until the present, the world was a torrent of migration and conquest. The first rude castles which had been raised by nobles of Acheron were laid to waste once again as a horde of Hyborian tribes washed their blood into this land to give it the name of Brythunia.

In recent history, thy Brythunian people have raided and invaded Zamora repeatedly, defeating them more often than not on the field of battle. Yea, but the Zamorans have grown wise in the ways of intrigue and have yet to be conquered. On this day, Brythunia is still a land divided into smaller kingdom states, for the Nobles of Brythunia are ever loath to give up their independence. Still, Brythunia does see itself as one nation and all rally together for the common defense.

Yet the councils of the Nobles are ever divided. Who of the more powerful Nobles has the strength to rule all? Thy dream, Great One, is to unite thy people on the road to empire under the will of one High King. To do this thou must steep thyself in the knowledge of the land and its people. Heed closely as I counsel thee with the knowledge that I possess.

IMPERIAL GOALS

Let me tell thee of the dreams of your sires and the dreams of their fathers before them. It is known, my Lord, that if only the following imperial goals can be achieved, a new age of glory and prosperity shall dawn upon the kingdom. Thus have the rulers of Brythunia ever strived to conquer and control the following provinces and control a continuous line of provinces between them and any home province of Brythunia.

The rulers of Brythunia ever strive to conquer and control the following provinces:

Shadizar of Zamora
The Zamorian Marches of The Desert Steppes

If successful in achieving these goals, Brythunia will truly become an empire and will be immediately able to raise ten Imperial Troops of a type presently unknown to us.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

Know, Great One, that from days of old it has been prophesied that one would come to us, one who would lead us to glory and victory over all our enemies. Word already spreads throughout the land and among our people that you indeed may be this one. If you would lead us to victory, heed closely to what I now impart to thee. Below I have listed which factors will either benefit or adversely affect the victory of thy kingdom.

The victory of your kingdom will depend upon the number of provinces under your control.

You will make major progress towards victory by controlling:

The Brythunia Heartland (24) of Brythunia.
The High Plains (26) of Brythunia.
The Eastern Borders Region (183) of Zamora.
The Turanian Wastes (277) of The Desert Steppes.
